- 69 all-new images. Marital Bliss is as fun to show your friends as it is to play, and now more than half the cards in the game feature new images.
- 10 new mission & reward cards. This expanded and improved version includes multiple new mission and reward cards.
- Printed in the USA from responsibly managed forests. FSC-certified paper and card stock comes from responsibly managed, sustainable forests.
- Launching in time for Valentine's Day. What better way to say “I Love You” than with the gift of a spatula card game.

Tell Me About the Game...

- Marital Bliss is the couples game that turns your life into a playing field. It's a two-player game for people in a serious relationship. It's easy to pick up and play, and great for spicing up your day-to-day routine.
- One week to outwit the person 'ya love. That's right, each round of Marital Bliss is played over seven days!
- Complete Super-Secret Missions. You begin the week with real-world missions to accomplish. The trick is... you must accomplish your missions without your spouse guessing what they are.
- Better Marriages through Subterfuge™ Was that your mission!? If a mission is guessed, it's not worth any points. Time to get sneaky.
- To the victor go the spoils. Who will win the reward at the end of the week?
